

Hope With Answers Living With Lung Cancer

Podcast 01 Show Notes

Title: I've been diagnosed with lung cancer- what now?

Date: December 2019

Description: The diagnosis of lung cancer is devastating and overwhelming. Often, getting a 2nd opinion from a lung cancer specialist- called a thoracic oncologist- is the best first step to getting the best possible care for your specific kind of lung cancer. Find out how a 2nd opinion pinpointed her biomarker and changed everything for lung cancer survivor and advocate Lysa Buonanno, and find out how to go about getting a 2nd opinion with thoracic oncologist Dr. David Carbone. You'll also hear from Lung Cancer Foundation of America co-founder Kim Norris on her work helping people living with lung cancer access the best possible treatment.
