INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Board of Directors of Lung Cancer Foundation of America

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Lung Cancer Foundation of America (a nonprofit organization), which comprise the statements of financial position as of December 31, 2022 and 2021, and the related statements of activities and changes in net assets, functional expenses, and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Lung Cancer Foundation of America (the Foundation) as of December 31, 2022 and 2021, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of the Foundation and to meet our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audits. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Foundation's ability to continue as a going concern within one year after the date that the financial statements are available to be issued.

Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditors' report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and, therefore, is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements, including omissions, are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Foundation's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Foundation's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control-related matters that we identified during the audit.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS DECEMBER 31, 2022 AND 2021

NOTE 1 – Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Nature of the Foundation

Lung Cancer Foundation of America (the Foundation) was established in 2007 as a Minnesota nonprofit corporation. The purpose of the Foundation is to dramatically improve the survivorship of lung cancer patients through the funding of transformative science, with the ultimate goal of curing the disease. To accomplish this, the Foundation works to raise both the funds and the national profile of lung cancer in order to substantially increase support of innovative and groundbreaking research efforts.

Recently Adopted Accounting Standard

In September 2020, the FASB issued ASU 2020-07, Not-for-Profit Entities (Topic 958): Presentation and Disclosures by Not-for-Profit Entities for Contributed Nonfinancial Assets, which requires a not-for-profit to present contributed nonfinancial assets as a separate line item in the statements of activities, disaggregate the amount of contributed nonfinancial assets by category that depicts the type of nonfinancial assets, and provide additional information related to the monetization, utilization, and valuation of the contributed nonfinancial assets. The Foundation adopted the standard during the year ended December 31, 2022. No reclassifications to prior-year amounts were necessary in order to adopt the new standard.

Financial Statement Presentation

The financial statements of the Foundation have been prepared under the accrual basis of accounting. The accompanying financial statements include statements of financial position that present the amounts for each of two classes of net assets – net assets without donor restrictions and net assets with donor restrictions based on the existence or absence of donor-imposed restrictions. They also include statements of activities that reflect the changes in those categories of net assets, and statements of functional expenses that associate expenses with service efforts.

Net assets without donor restrictions include those net assets that may be used by the Foundation for any of its programs or administrative support. Net assets with donor restrictions include those net assets whose use by the Foundation has been limited by donors to specified purposes or time restrictions, including those that would restrict the net assets into perpetuity. However, donor-imposed stipulations on contributions who's stipulations are met in the same reporting period are recorded as net assets without donor restrictions.

Use of Estimates and Assumptions

Management uses estimates and assumptions in preparing financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Those estimates and assumptions affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities, and the reported revenue and expenses. Actual results could vary from the estimates that were assumed in preparing the financial statements.

Pledges Receivable

Unconditional promises to give (pledges) are recorded as receivables and contributions, distinguishing between contributions received for each net asset class in accordance with donor-imposed restrictions. Conditional pledges are recorded when such conditions have been satisfied. An allowance for uncollectible contributions receivable is provided, based on management's judgment, including such factors as prior collection history, type of donation, nature of fundraising activity and when time requirements are expected to be met. Management believes the remaining outstanding receivables as of December 31, 2022 and 2021 are collectible in full and, accordingly, no allowance for uncollectible receivables has been provided. Receivables expected to be collected in more than 12 months are recorded at the net present value of the estimated future cash flows, when such discount is determined to be material.

Revenue and Support

Contributions, including pledges, whether with or without donor restrictions, are recognized as support in the period received or pledged. Amounts received or promised that are designated for future periods or restricted by the donor for specific purposes are reported as restricted support that increases those net asset classes. When a restriction expires, net assets with donor restrictions are reclassified to net assets without donor restrictions and reported in the statements of activities as net assets released from restrictions.

Special event revenue is recognized in the period earned.

Donated Goods and Services

A substantial number of volunteers make significant contributions of their time in the furtherance of the Foundation's purpose. For those services that do not require special expertise, the estimated value of such donated services has not been recorded in the financial statements. In-kind donations and services for which fair value can be validated and requiring specific expertise have been reflected in the financial statements at their estimated fair value. During the years ended December 31, 2022 and 2021, the Foundation recorded no donated goods or services within contributions or special event revenue or expenses.

The Board of Directors approved the awarding of multi-year lung cancer research grants. These grants called for the awarding of $600,000 in 2019. Income Taxes

The Foundation has received tax-exempt status from the Internal Revenue Service under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.
